The Howard County Conservancy is a local non-profit organization that provides environmental education and land preservation programs. The Conservancy offers programs at two locations – our home base at Mt. Pleasant Farm in Woodstock and at Howard County’s Belmont Manor and Historic Park in Elkridge. The properties feature beautiful streams, woodlands, wetlands and grasslands and are conveniently located between Baltimore and Washington. Our Mt. Pleasant location features four miles of trails, historic farmstead buildings and native plant and thematic gardens.

Belmont Facilities
Our Belmont location is in the Carriage House at Howard County Recreation and Park’s Belmont Manor and Historic Park in Elkridge. This 60-acre park is surrounded by Patapsco State Park and features the historic Belmont Manor house. The Carriage House is available for business meetings and community group rentals. Belmont is open for scheduled events only.
